Who will benefit from this course?

The Approaches to Trauma Informed Practice course is a Professional Development Award (PDA) designed to help candidates gain knowledge and understanding of trauma, the causes and the impact of trauma on the individual. Delivered by our experienced trainers, candidates will consider the importance of being an informed practitioner in supporting individuals who may be affected by trauma and explore both therapeutic and organisational approaches to trauma.

What will you learn?

Day 1 - Course Introduction

Day 2 & 3 – Unit 1 - What is Trauma? An Introduction

Day 4 & 5 – Unit 2 - Childhood Trauma

Day 6 & 7 – Unit 3 - Therapeutic Approaches to Trauma

Day 8 & 9 – Unit 4 - Organisational Approaches to Trauma

What will you gain?

On successful completion of the course, you will gain an SCQF Level 7 qualification.

How will it be delivered?

Over nine face-to-face sessions, candidates will take part in a mix of thought-provoking content, group discussion and interactive activities.

Candidates will be assessed via self-directed work and ongoing support is available throughout the course.
